

PRIVACY AND VIDEO SURVEILLANCE POLICY

1. AAPS carrying on business as Academy of Applied Pharmaceutical Sciences (hereinafter "School", "us", or "we") has created this privacy policy in order to demonstrate our commitment to privacy and the protection of your personal information, information pursuant to current privacy legislation. Please read this policy to understand how your personal information will be treated.
2. The School collects information in several ways. Some personal information is gathered if you register with us. During registration, the School may ask for personal information such as your name, email address, gender, zip/postal code, occupation, industry and personal interests.
3. We may ask you for personal information outside of the context of registration, including (but not limited to) when you download a file (such as a .PDF file) from the School; when you ask us to contact you; when you join our mailing list; and when you report a problem relating to the services we provided or the courses offered. If you contact us we may keep a record of that correspondence.
4. When prospective students, i.e. candidates provide us with information such as their name, mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address, we use this contact information to send these candidates additional information about the School. A candidate's contact information may also be used by us to contact him or her directly. Candidates may choose not to receive future mailings or other communications from the School at any time by notifying our Chief Privacy Officer at the address below.
5. We will not sell or rent your personal information to third parties without obtaining your informed consent. Generally, the School does not sell or rent personal information in any event.
6. The School's web site provides much information spanning many topics. While the School attempts to provide accurate information to its site users, it provides no guarantees regarding the accuracy or reliability of this content. The School's web site and/or any content on the internet relating to the School, does not constitute a contract or promise from the School to its site users, be they prospective students, students, or otherwise.
7. The School website has security measures and safeguards in place to protect against the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information that is under our control at any given time. However, since no data transmission over the Internet is completely secure we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or in relation to our online products or services, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your transmission, we make every attempt to ensure that it is kept secure with us. You must still be solely responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your passwords and/or any account information.
8. We may use "cookies" to store and sometimes track information about you. A cookie is a small amount of data that is sent to your browser from our web server and stored on your computer's hard drive. We may do this in order to further automate our website or online forms, or to help us understand who may be interested in our programs. By modifying your own browser preferences, you have the choice to accept all cookies, to be notified when a cookie is set, or to reject all cookies.
9. Subject to any legislated exemptions which would permit us to disclose your personal information as is necessary, we will not disclose any of your personal information except when we have your informed consent. "Personal Information" is defined broadly by governing legislation as any information about an identifiable individual except the name, title, and business address or office telephone number of an employee of an organization.

AAPS

10. Pursuant to allowable exemptions under current legislation, we may disclose personal information when we have reason to believe that disclosing this information is necessary to identify, contact, or bring legal action against someone who may be violating the School's policy, violating any law of the province of Ontario or Canada, or may be causing injury to or interference with (either intentionally or unintentionally) the School's rights or property, other Students or faculty members, or anyone else who could be harmed by such activities. We may also disclose your personal information to a collection agency for the purposes of the lawful collection of a debt owed to us by you.

11. Our policy with respect to the use, collection, retention, and disclosure of all student records is governed by applicable privacy legislation as well as the relevant provisions of the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005, and Ontario Regulation 415/06.

12. We make every attempt to periodically update our Privacy Policy such that it is in compliance with governing privacy legislation, legislation administered by the Ministry of Training Colleges and Universities, and is in general conformity with best practices.

13. The School also abides by the Privacy Commissioner's guidelines released on March 6, 2008, regarding Video Surveillance Policy. To summarize, to the extent that it uses or will seek to use video surveillance, the School will

- a) ensure there is a justifiable business purpose for the surveillance;
- b) seek to avoid capturing the images of people not being targeted for some specific, legitimate purpose;
- c) to the extent possible, seek to not use cameras in areas where people have a heightened expectation;
- d) to the extent possible, seek to notify students and other individuals about the use of cameras before those individuals enter the premises;
- e) subject to some legal justification to withhold and unless the data is destroyed, provide access to Individuals whose images are captured on videotape;
- f) ensure that video surveillance equipment and videotapes are secured and used for authorized purposes only;
- g) ensure that to the extent that recorded images are stored, that they are stored in a secure location with limited access.

14. Should you have a question or concern about our Privacy Policy or our practises in this regard, please contact
